

Dana Tomescu

Dana Tomescu, MD,PhD, Head of Anesthesia and Intensive Care Department of Fundeni Clinical Institute, Professor of Anesthesia and Intensive Care at Bucharest University of Medicine and Pharmacy, National Coordinator of Acute Liver Failure Frame Program of the Romanian Health Insurance System, Board Member of LICAGE, president of Balkan Association of Vascular Access, vice-president of ROMTRANSPLANT.

Member of the team that performed the first liver transplant in Romania (2000), member of the team that performed the first liver transplant in the Republic of Moldavia.

Head of anesthesia for liver transplantation in Fundeni Clinical Institute, a high volume center for liver transplantation, where whole liver, living related liver transplant, split liver, domino, dual graft, auxiliary liver and emergency liver transplants are performed.

.